to the graduates of today —
may the paths of their lives be as pleasant as the paths of this school.

VETERANS

The end of World War II saw the beginning of a new class at Newton High School; the Veterans, with Major Donald Enoch as adviser. At first, enrollment was slight, but it steadily increased month by month until the number exceeded one hundred in March, 1946. In fact, their group expanded so much that 2107, their original homeroom, was found to be too small for any reasonable comfort, and another room in building two was substituted.

Upon entering Newton High, the Veterans were granted a special "Bill of Rights", which provided the same privileges conferred upon college students. Their homeroom had no homeroom teacher. They were free to do whatever they pleased within their laws, when not attending classes. If they had a study period scheduled at 8:30 and they didn't wish to report to it, they were not required to be at school until it was time for their first class.

Their presence in classes was beneficial for those students associated with them, for the Veterans showed by their applied interest in their subjects that they had returned to school to make good use of their time.

During the last few years over one hundred certificates have been awarded to boys who left school before graduating to join the service. The list that follows is complete as of April, 1946.

ACQUINTANCES

ALPHA BETA

Sophomores, do you like surprises? Then ALPHA BETA is just what you are looking for. No two programs are alike, and all are full of interest and fun. Here you may meet your classmates and enjoy talks by various speakers. This year's members delighted in the stories of well beloved Mr. John Cronan, and thrilled to Mrs. Hugh Robinson's narrations of her experiences as a teacher in China. At these meetings you may spend an enjoyable afternoon a month, either as participant or audience. A party with refreshments and entertainment closes the year.

ALPHA GAMMA TAU

When is the shortest line not a straight line? When it's a geodesic. If you flipped nine coins and all landed heads, what are the odds against the tenth landing the same: 10-1? or even odds? Puzzled? Join ALPHA GAMMA TAU and learn the answers. Win prizes for solving geometric puzzles. See old man Euclid caught barefaced with his parallel-line axiom. Numbers have ways of playing pranks. Math can be fun!

ART CLUB

To those gifted people of Newton High possessing artistic talent . . . for we of the Activities Staff are hopeless . . . the door of the ART CLUB is wide open. Here one is given the chance to express the emotions that have been stifled in the classrooms. In the artistic atmosphere of Building I rooftop, all budding geniuses are occupied in composing their own masterpieces, whether a painting or a piece of sculpture. One needs only to pass the try-out drawing test (for competition is keen) to become a member. But those who doodle on their notebook papers are not necessarily considered artists.

AVIATION CLUB

The AVIATION CLUB got off to a flying start this year with a U-line gas model plane exhibit given by the Boston Balsa Bees. The club's first landing was made at Logan Airfield, where the proxy pilots were shown around by an American Airline representative. Highlighting the season was a flight from Logan Airport. For the first time in four years the "aviators" left the hangar of 2308 for the heavens above Massachusetts. . . . We leave them FLYING HIGH!!

BAND

Whose heart doesn't beat a little faster when our BAND comes marching in? It inspires our teams to "do or die" on the field. At rallies and assemblies it gets us all solidly behind our teams and our leaders. In fact, our bandsmen (and women) are so good that the sponsors of the flagship New England couldn't christen the plane and send her to London without having them at the field to provide the oomph! The members of the band furnish the school with a musical organization that can play "Merrittoriously" at any gathering.

BOYS' CHORUS

"Lord Geoffrey Amherst was a soldier of the king
And he came from across the sea-a-a;
To the Frenchman and the Indians, he didn't do a thing
In the wilds of this wild countree-e-e. . . ."

If anyone passing by room 2200 has heard this rousing song, he was probably listening to the BOYS' CHORUS. For this group of twenty-five fellows specializes in college songs and also sea chanties, Negro spirituals, and love songs. Taking the cue from a young gentleman named Sinatra, boys have discovered that girls like to swoon at male voices. Join this chorus, boys — why not give Frankie a run for his money?

CAMERA CLUB

The CAMERA CLUB clicked this year with an all time high of 110 members, each of whom was eager to win a prize in the annual contest within the club. In preparation for this contest was a series of interesting and informative programs during which the club was instructed in the use of the camera, the developing of pictures, portraiture, and color photography. Finally, bolstered by a local test of skill, the members arranged a contest with old rival Brookline.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Not recitations of conjugations,
But crossword puzzles and singing songs.
We have no intentions of chanting declensions,
So long as we're sure that our grammar's not wrong.
We spend every meeting in talking and reading,
Gaming and chattering (of work — just a smattering!) in the Parisian manner.
And after each session, get our coats and rush home,
(Of all things!) we rush home to study our grammar.
We invite you to spend afternoons à Paris;
And we won't take a "non", just a "oui".

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Out of the test tubes of many chemists have come products that would have dazzled the eyes of Aladdin. But the products which are emitted from the test tubes of the chemists in 233 would probably have affected his nose ( $H_2S$  — a rare gas). These twelve selected scientists, nevertheless, have accomplished much during the year. The advancement they have made in developing Lab Technique serves as a typical example. They experimented with Qualitative Analysis, the analysis of compounds that look alike, and even sponsored a contest, the winners of which were given candy atoms to split. So if you always mistake sugar for salt, or vinegar for water, join the CHEMISTRY CLUB and learn to tell the difference the easy way — by Qualitative Analysis!

CAVALRY CLUB

Are you the outdoor type? Is your horoscope in harmony with that of dumb animals? Are you an equestrian par excellence? These will be the questions asked of you before entrance into the CAVALRY CLUB. If all three can be answered affirmatively and proved, you are in for a galloping good time.

DEBATING CLUB

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE WITH THE FORMULA FOR THE ATOMIC BOMB? RUSSIA—FRIEND OR ENEMY? WILL THE U.N. BE EFFECTIVE FOR WORLD ORGANIZATION?

Recognizing these as pertinent questions, the DEBATING CLUB has undertaken to answer them through formal debates, round-table discussions, and forums. Every member, alert to current questions, is given the opportunity to take part either in the debates or in the lively discussion periods that follow. No matter how destructive the discussion, debaters aim for constructive solutions to current problems.

DRAMA CLUB

Open to only a selected group of thespians, the DRAMA CLUB devoted its meetings to varied forms of this art. A talent program, a reading of Eugene O'Neill's "Beyond the Horizon," and a grand party in the social room were the main intra-club activities of the season. The club was active in serving the school also, as is seen by its stirring tableau of The Nativity at Christmas Vespers. The culmination of this year, however, was the psychological drama, "Kind Lady." This finished performance represented the importance of drama in school activities, as well as inspiration and talent on the part of the director, Mrs. Wiens, and the cast.

DRAMA WORKSHOP

Behind every actor, actress, musician, or dancer that appears on the stage of Newton High, there stands a DRAMA WORKSHOP member. These girls use their versatility to accomplish such masterpieces of scenery as the Barretts' residence on 50 Wimpole Street or Kind Lady's home. Their duties are simple: to do what the Stage Crew is incapable of doing. They paint, shift, and set up scenery or raise the curtain with equal skill and eagerness.

ENGLISH CLUB

Versatile are the meetings
Of this organization;
Students and outsiders both
Enjoy participation.

The club's long history
Written in a skit,
Gave drama-tending members
Their chance to act a bit.

Others showed their talent
Running the Book Fair.
Others merely listened
To a speaker's "savoir faire".

But, at the final outing,
Concord, the Hub,
And other literary points
Saw all the English Club.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The EXECUTIVE COUNCIL is the highest student-faculty governing body in the school. It is composed of student chairmen and faculty advisers of all the activities boards, as well as the bursar, the principal, the assistant principal as executive secretary, and the faculty class advisers. At its semi-monthly meetings, the Council passes or vetoes all laws enacted by the Legislature, and disposes of any other school business brought to its attention. The Executive Council is truly an efficient model of the best in school government.

GLEE CLUB

The Lily Ponses and Lawrence Tibbetts of Newton High have ample opportunity to pour out their golden voices in the GLEE CLUB. The fifty-five boys and girls comprising this musical organization sing at various assemblies throughout the year. One of their best performances is always at Christmas Vespers, where they go out of character by assuming saintly aspects in their black robes. The Glee Club breaks up into quartets and double quartets which are adept at four-part harmony. So if you have a truly beautiful voice and wish to share it with others — perhaps the Glee Club will take you on trial!

HOME ROOM MANAGERS

Newtonites, play tickets, S.A.T.'s too, . . .
 The HOME ROOM MANAGER brings these to you.
 When you find all your finances gone,
 You know that, advised by Mr. Swan,
 Your manager has come across
 With class dues, Newtonians, Red Cross,
 And other funds too many to mention
 For which reason this page gives him all its attention.

JUNIOR-SENIOR GIRLS' CHORUS

Juniors and Seniors: You need not possess the voice of Lily Pons to enter the JUNIOR-SENIOR GIRLS' CHORUS! Willingness and reasonable ability in singing are the only requirements. Here the skills of group singing are emphasized, although solo work is introduced to those with voices of operatic quality. This year choral training was shown to full advantage at Christmas Vespers, where these 160 girls sang a selection of Christmas Carols. In this chorus, also, an understanding of music is developed, as well as an acquaintance with good musical literature. Lastly, you will find here the inevitable fun born of doing things together.

“KIND LADY”

Life is changed for Mary Herries, an aristocratic spinster, when Henry Abbott takes up his residence at her large home in Montague Square, London. Mary's house, as well as her life, gradually falls into the hands of Mr. Abbott and his friends, who try to convince her she is insane. Although they succeed in persuading outsiders, they do not convince Mary, and her life is a continual struggle to get word to the outside world. Finally, at a tense moment, a business acquaintance of Henry Abbott believes Mary's story and carries her letter disclosing Abbott's treachery to the police. Thus the play ends with the triumph of justice. That this ending pleased the audience was evident at two fine performances.

Kind Lady, the Drama Club's production for 1946, was a top-notch combination of acting, producing, and directing.

LEGISLATURE

The LEGISLATURE, law-making body of Newton High, is made up of a member from every two sophomore rooms, every junior room, and two from each senior home room. Undoubtedly, all students are aware of its existence through their close attention to monthly reports, but many do not understand its functions. When a bill is proposed by a representative, the members, quick to seize upon vital issues, absorb themselves in heated debate. After all phases of the plan have been considered by our competent law-makers, the matter is put to vote. If it survives this ordeal, it goes on to the executive council for approval.

During the year the Legislature has passed several bills in that manner, among which were the point system, J. V. and Intermediate letters for track men not having points enough for a varsity letter, and the new awards for girls' sports.

LIBRARY CLUB

The girls in the LIBRARY CLUB deserve much credit from every Newton High pupil who uses the library. At each meeting, they perform such necessary tasks as making out overdue slips, planning bulletin boards, clipping newspapers, and keeping library books in good order. Yet these multiple duties do not give the members the grubby mien of the invertebrate animals of the Vermes group (bookworms). If the reader will but appraise the group picture, he will see human beings who also visit the Canteen after school and the Totem Pole on week-ends. So the next time you read a library book which holds together of its own accord, say a silent prayer for the Library Club girl who helped keep it together.

MICROPHONE CLUB

"Good afternoon! This is station WNHS broadcasting from the Samuel Thurber Room where the MICROPHONE CLUB is about to produce the first in a series of short skits adapted for radio. Don't forget that at the next meeting Miss Nute will tell us of her radio experiences in the Women's Army Corps and that, instead of the February meeting, we will visit the Quiz of Two Cities at WNAC. This afternoon's play, The Lost Silk Hat, will start shortly, but first a word from our sponsor . . ." ***!!! thud!! thud!! "Quick, shut it off! We regret that, due to conditions beyond our control, this program has been momentarily interrupted." (Pause of five minutes.) "The scene is laid on a street in London in front of a wealthy mansion. . . ."

So it goes! Such are the activities and tribulations of the MICROPHONE CLUB, maker of future Bill Goodwins and Norman Corwins.

MUSIC CLUB

Under the auspices of Mr. Lasker, the MUSIC CLUB has steadily increased in membership. This year, it has reached an all time high of 100 members. One of the most important factors in this evolution is the fact that MUSIC CLUB members no longer visit celebrities; celebrities visit the MUSIC CLUB. Those attending the informal soirées in 2312 this year have applauded such notables as Willie Apel, musicologist; Nicholas Slomensky, author and lecturer; and Lucas Foss, composer and Boston Symphony member. . . . The club has earned its E not only for Excellent achievement, but also for Education and Entertainment.

“SPRING MUSIC PARADE”

The auditorium dimmed; the curtain rose, exposing the high school orchestra swathed in a dim blue light; the Spring Music Parade had begun. It was comprised to exhibit the talents of the orchestra, glee club, band, and modern dancers. The appreciative audience heard such favorites as “Rhapsody in Blue”, “Summertime”, “In the Still of the Night”, “Ol’ Man River”, “The Emperor’s Waltz”, and “Smoke Gets in Your Eyes”. Furthermore, the band surprised everyone and set feet tapping when they burst into an enthusiastic rendition of “Bad Boy Boogie Woogie.”

The 1946 Spring Music Parade proved it could hold its own against the rivalry of its predecessors, “Beaux Arts” and “Rotogravure”. Newton High School had produced another hit!

MOTION PICTURE SQUAD

In recent years, to the enjoyment of both teachers and pupils, films have been used more extensively at Newton High School. The social study, science, and home economics classes especially have found valuable education through this medium. Teachers have discovered that in the re-creation of events or facts, greater interest, as well as a broader understanding, has developed among pupils. For the welcome classroom movies we thank the often unnoticed boys of the MOTION PICTURE SQUAD whose undying devotion to projectors has made these movies possible. These boys are always on hand, willingly giving up study periods to watch over the intricate-looking machines. Our hats are off to you, moving picture boys! May the need for you increase in years to come.

NEOPHYTES

Chosen by the officers of the previous year, the sixty dramatically devoted members of this sophomore club have accomplished much this season. At each club meeting two play readings were given by the members. These readings were to instruct in acting technique as well as to entertain. Among the more memorable one-act plays were: Will You Marry Me?, Lost Hat, One Egg, and The Man With the Bowler Hat, which really "bowled them over". The club favorite, however, was Crimson Coconut, an amusing farce. By this experience, the NEOPHYTES prepares boys and girls for the Drama Club and other school dramatic activities.

THE NEWTONITE

"Hey! Where's the feature article for page one?" . . . . "Who has my editorial?" . . . "We need one hundred words to fill up this space. Anyone any ideas?" . . . "Do you think we'll finish this issue by six?" Come up to room 1303 almost any Friday afternoon and hear such talk as this! Amidst the hubbub of chatter, both general and personal, a Newtonite is produced. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors alike pool their journalistic talents and proudly watch editor Roger take their "baby" to the printer's. The next Wednesday the Newtonite is distributed to students, affording an enjoyable diversion in homeroom period and S-block.

Those who have been members of The Newtonite staff have served not only the school but themselves. Contributing to the success of this popular newspaper has made them realize the full significances of co-operation, loyalty, and friendship. To have belonged to The Newtonite is, truly, an invaluable experience.

ORANGE BOOK

When Newt first came to Newton High, he was completely befuddled. Everything was new to him. He wandered around from building to building before he found the lunchroom, and he was so weak he could hardly stand. Afternoons, because he had nothing else to do, he used to study (he still does — some). One day Newt got into trouble. He was called in by the Legislature, and when they heard his story, they all voted to give him a copy of the ORANGE BOOK. Inside its brightly colored covers Newt found our Constitution and all sorts of material on the clubs, sports, traditions, and publications at NHS. Best of all, there was a calendar of school events. Now Newt knows his way around; he's popular and busy — thanks to the ORANGE BOOK.

ORANGE SHIELD

When you clutter up the floor
With stale sandwiches galore,
And the lunchroom captains roar —
Do you care?

Or when wrappers fly around,
Doing nose dives to the ground,
And the culprits can't be found —
Do you care?

The ORANGE SHIELD does. This group, composed entirely of volunteers chosen on the basis of citizenship and scholarship, takes charge of the pupils' behavior in the cafeteria. The lunchroom captains, picked by the Civics Board, constitute the Board of Review, whose duty it is to judge any offenders of the lunchroom. After the pupils leave, this group sweeps floors, wipes tables, and generally sees to it that NHS's eating place is kept in an order conducive to good digestion.

ORCHESTRA

In 2312 or 2200 any Monday, Wednesday, or Friday, visitors are likely to be greeted with the deafening noise of bass fiddles being tuned, music racks being overturned, a misunderstood virtuoso crashing upon the piano, and the shrieks of "Horrors! I just broke my G-string!" But if the guests take heart and remain five minutes longer, they will see the highly individualistic orchestra members transformed into a well-synchronized body. Besides playing for entertainments and a spring concert, these incipient musicians are a very vital part of the combined modern dancing, Art, and English Department program. And the music is not purely long-hair. Instead of filing out to the martial music of Marche Militaire, our visitors may find themselves keeping time with the latest boogie opus of Count Basie.

OUTING CLUB

The rugged females in this club
Can swim and bowl and skate.
Yet they leave their strength behind
When they are on a date.

"Johnny, help me with my coat;
Open the door for me;
I'm too weak to roller skate,
But a movie I'd love to see."

There is a little moral here
To this tale of mine:
Even an Amazon may want
To be a clinging vine!

PERSONALITY CLUB

Believing that poise and good manners are acquired through practice, the PERSONALITY CLUB this year sponsored dancing lessons for its members and male guests. The fall series, for beginners, stressed the fundamental steps, the two-step waltz and basic jitterbug, as well as courtesy toward one's "date", and manners at a prom. The spring lessons featured the more complicated Viennese Waltz, Samba, Rhumba, and square dances. For these dance parties, the club had the service of Mrs. McDonough, instructors from the "O'Brien School of Ballroom Dancing", and a "caller" from the "Country Dance Society of Boston." Several teachers also joined in the fun.

At the regular monthly meetings discussions on poise, make-up, manners, and fashions were conducted. The motto of the Personality Club may well be: "Practice makes perfect."

RADIO CLUB

Who knows what makes condensers tick, resistors resist, and a coil coil? What is the use of a tank circuit? When intelligently discussing electricity, could you quote Ohm's law, and understand what it means? The members of the Radio Club know the answers to all of these questions, for during the course of the year they have not only made radios, but held active debates on the theory of radar. These are the boys who have the ability to use in their everyday conversation such tongue-twisting expressions as parabolic reflectors, cathode rays, pulse generators, and magnatron tubes. We leave them still stuttering!

SENIOR PLAY

Once upon a time a young poet entered the Barrett residence at 50 Wimpole Street and found in a sunless room the invalid poetess who was to become "his star". Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning never dreamed on that day over a century ago that the world would commemorate their love as well as their immortal poetry. Yet the growth of this love and the struggle between it and filial duty are unfolded in The Barretts. Written by a Newtonville playwright, Mrs. Marjorie Carleton, this three-act comedy gave twelve histrionically inclined seniors a chance to re-create these famous personages. After try-outs in early October, the cast rehearsed for six weeks under the direction of Miss Helen Sweeney, whose skill and talent inspired two memorable performances.

SOCIAL ROOM

As one passes by the Social Room any school morning or afternoon, he is more than likely to see the following scene: in one corner, two misogynists meditating over a hopeless-looking chess game; in another, an equally studious girl reading some ancient history (the June 22nd, 1942 issue of Life). Meanwhile the radio, attracting several devotees of jazz, is going full blast. The remaining visitors relax in the most comfortable chairs provided in Newton High. Presiding over this confusion are the student caretakers, the Social Room Hosts and Hostesses.

SOCIAL STUDIES CLUB

Something happening in China today may influence your own life a year from now. An uprising half a world away may draft you eventually. A foolish quarrel between allies may shatter plans for world union. Little things, things we might easily overlook, may be vital in a short time. It is important to understand the world today. In the SOCIAL STUDIES CLUB, you can learn the facts behind the headlines. At the first meeting Major Evan Johnson discussed conditions in England. At other meetings the club saw movies about the Burma Road and the battle of Iwo Jima. Inevitably, many meetings are spent in lively debate on the problems of today.

SOPHOMORE GIRLS' CHORUS

Junior High School graduates who sing and enjoy singing may easily pass the entrance try-outs for the SOPHOMORE GIRLS' CHORUS. To distinguish between tones and carry a tune is all that is required. This year the 140 girls of this group participated in the Memorial Day program and at Christmas sang carols to the attentive home rooms of building I. Practice in unison, and two and three part singing rounded out the activities of this chorus and afforded much enjoyment for every member.

SPANISH CLUB

"¡Caramba!" dijo el joven alumno que acabó de entrar en el cuarto 332. Porqué estuvo el alumno tan agitado? Yo le diré. Al Alumno no le gustaban las muchachas y en aquel cuarto había muchas, muchas muchachas. ¡El pobrecito! El pensó que el estaba solo con todas las muchachas, pero el descubrió en pocos minutos que había algunos otros muchachos detrás de ellas, y también el Señor Argento. El muchacho decidió quedarse rester allí, y esta es la historia de un muchacho que fué a su primera sesion del CLUB ESPAÑOL.

STAGE CREW

Suppose it were the night of the Senior Play, all the actors were ready, the audience were waiting, and no one knew how to open the curtains! Or suppose the hero were shooting the villain and, instead of a gunshot, there were the sound effects of a telephone ringing. Or suppose just as an actor said, "My, how dark it's getting!" someone turned on more floodlights. It is to prevent accidents like these (and to do the right things) that the STAGE CREW learns how plays are run backstage: how to handle scenery, lighting, and sound effects. The club is on hand for all Newton High's major productions and plays a leading role in making them successful.

TUSITALA

"Fool!" said my muse to me. "Look in thy heart and write." Members of the TUSITALA club, whether consciously or not, hold by that quotation. Rare, indeed, is he who has not at some time wished to set down on paper words that could lift hearts, bring a laugh, or stir people to action. The average person decides he cannot do it and lets it go at that. A few students of this school have banded together in the TUSITALA or "Storytellers" club. They strive to better themselves as writers and to better others through honest criticism. The criticism is brutally frank; sincere praise, on the other hand, is ever ready. After all, the object of the club is to make bad writers good, and to make good writers irresistible.

NEWTONIAN

This is the book you have been waiting for. Here is the effort of hard working editors to present you with your carbon-copy of a year at Newton High School. This is your memento for days never-to-be-repeated.

During Wednesday afternoons in the early months of the year, editors could be heard in 329 setting forth plans, arguing over details, finally agreeing on a general outline with which to work. Staffs were meticulously chosen to receive the bulk of the blame, if not the work. Printer, engraver, photographer were consulted. Each gave inviolable deadlines with the purpose of "getting the book out on time" — a familiar motto among yearbook compilers. In the midst of the confusion a dummy took shape. Pictures, write-ups, advertisements, poured in from multitudes, became miraculously untangled by copy and proof staffs, and were fitted into a coherent order. And so out of the confusion, the struggle, and 60 toiling brains was born your NEWTONIAN for 1945-1946.

RALLY COMMITTEE

Nobody knows who they are, and at last we are going to reveal their identity. Those odd orange scribbles on your homeroom blackboards are the artistic triumphs of this snappy seven. They are also the instigators of our rip-roaring, rollicking rallies. Before every game in every sport this group of overtime-fiends distributes posters of fierce-looking orange men in strategic spots around the school. All this is very commendable, and now that we know who they are, they deserve our highest praise. These meter-maniacs also wrote those lumpy little limericks that have adorned our bulletin throughout the year, plugging Orange Days!

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

With the coming of winter, the basketball season began. The eager participants chose their teams and elected captains. The "Lovelorns", with their capable captain, Norma Simmons, were victorious over all the other self-chosen teams. The class teams having been selected, the juniors walked off with the honor of winning the class tournament. The senior team was the only one undefeated after playing Wellesley, Needham, and Watertown. Varsity players were chosen, and thrilling games ensued against Wellesley, Needham, Watertown, Medford, Belmont, and Choate. The outstanding players were Norma Simmons, Carol Wass, and Janet Lawlor. Girls' basketball has proved to be one of the most popular girls' sports in high school and will undoubtedly remain so in future years.

FIELD HOCKEY

Early in the school year at Newton High, many girls were seen viciously hitting the balls with their sticks on the hockey field. The season for "les femmes" sports had begun. Once more the seniors proved their ability to outshine the lower classmen in the class tournament. The Orange and Black Varsities started well with the second team victorious and with the first team ending in a tie against a capable and swift-moving Watertown eleven. The other scheduled games were with Medford, Needham, Belmont, and Wellesley. It was a good season with the exception of the last two games. At the Windsor Umpiring Conference, which is held each year, our team played well. This year, as in previous years, the girls played hard, clean games, and with the ability demonstrated by the underclassmen, next year's hockey season should be a most successful one.

MODERN DANCE

For these girls who leap and fall,
Of pity we feel none at all.
They glide and topple with equal skill.
On the next morn, they feel no ill.
While they turn and twist and prance
And do a most exhausting dance,
We others sit and speculate
What will be their final fate.
Honor these, the valiant few!
They dance as we can never do!

THE PREF
ARE

We, the seniors of Newton High,
Shall ever remember these years gone by;
Years of work and years of play,
Well rewarded this last day.
Tomorrow we leave these halls of knowledge,
Some to jobs, some to college;
But in this book we shall always be Reunited by memory.
And so, we seniors of Newton High
Say to you a fond goodbye.
